Professional Aging Management:

We Are Your Outsource Solution.

Accounts 30-60-90-120 or more days old require time and patience. They also cost you money each day they sit unpaid.

We can help.

We Are Experts

With a total of more than 125 years of combined experience in professional aging management, you can rest assured our team has the experience to effectively work your aging receivable accounts. We strive to make the process easy for you and your staff by creating a customized plan to turn your aged accounts over to us. We are experienced with all payer types and have contacts at most insurance companies who will facilitate the process. Connecting to your system is easier than you may think.

Staying Current

Laws and compliance guidelines change frequently, and staying current with the changes can be a significant time draw on your office resources. When you outsource your aging to us you no longer need to commit those resources. We take care of it for you and educate your staff members who need this information. Imagine what a relief that alone would be to your staff.

Professionalism

We work under your company's name and carry ourselves as such. Our agents are held accountable for dealing with payers and patients so you can trust we represent you with the same level of professionalism you expect from your own staff.
